Dear Lynn:

Thanks for responding to my email job inquiry. Enclosed is the proofreading test and a hard copy of my resume.

Concerning the proofreading test, Please Note that I did notice that it is written in "European style," in terms of placement (of some dates) as well as in spelling (colour vs. color etc.) and occasionally the use of quotation marks. Having proofread books by English writers, I have let all instances of that style stand. I just wanted you to realize I do know and understand the difference.

Again, thank you for your consideration. I look forward to your response.

Sincerely,

Peter S. Brown
